

Help us celebrate Chinese New Year 2021 – The Year of the Ox.

Due to Covid 19 our usual live Spring Festival Gala Ireland showcasing a variety of Chinese culture and celebrating the Chinese New Year in Ireland will not be a live event this year. Instead, we are going on-line with the festivities and invite you to join us in a video submission to celebrate the year of the Ox.

STUDENT VIDEO SUBMISSION

Selected videos will be included in a one-hour video.

This will broadcast on 14th February 2021 on UCD Confucius Institute YouTube channel to celebrate the Chinese New Year online.

Prizes of €200 to the 20 best videos.

How: Submission by uploading a short video clip (1-5 mins) through the google form linked below or input a file-sharing site link (e.g. WeTransfer) to the google form linked below.

What: A creative mini-showcase of Chinese Culture on the topic of 'Celebrating Chinese New Year in Ireland.' This can be a song, dance, poem, story, calligraphy, painting or other Chinese traditional performance OR a reportage, vlog, narrative, animation, or even a mini documentary that you have directed/ produced or designed for this competition.

Who: Any student who is interested in Chinese language and culture and who lives in Ireland can enter the submission except for judge panel members and their respective spouses, parents, siblings, and children.

Format: .mov or .mp4 file. Video resolution must be AT LEAST 720p (1280 x 720) or 4K (3840 x 2160)

When: Submissions by 22nd January, 2021, together with completed application form available at: <https://forms.gle/zKWKcGQJ2Cf6fFfeA>

- Written parental consent is required for students aged under 18 years.
- We will not consider submission without the completed google form or lower resolution
- Equal marks will be awarded for: creativity, production quality, clarity of ideas and originality
- For any query, please email china@ucd.ie

